

I am opposed to adding more names to the no calling list. If companies want to communicate with me they can use the U.S. mail system. I covet the privacy of my home and time and don't want it interrupted with more telephone calls.